

Design sustainable, innovative projects with Studio G Architects

A diverse, collaborative, and growing architecture studio, Boston-based Studio G seeks creative, enthusiastic architects and designers for socially and environmentally innovative design projects. Committed to social equity and inclusiveness, we design people-centered, place-specific, environmentally sensitive housing, schools, and civic projects.

We seek a creative, enthusiastic, and experienced Architect/Project Manager with 10 - 15 years' experience in design firms to work closely with the Principal-In-Charge in the design and management of multi-family housing and civic projects. Studio G prides itself on a diverse, multi-cultural, and LGBTQ-friendly workplace. We value individuals who offer design creativity, problem-solving and analytical thinking, and collaborative and interpersonal skills. We welcome enterprising staff, providing mentoring and opportunities for professional growth and advancement.

Minimum requirements: Located in the Boston area and available for in-person work; completed B.Arch or M.Arch diploma; experience with housing projects; proficiency in Revit; strong communication and collaboration skills; construction administration experience; demonstrated experience leading design, presentation, and construction drawings; demonstrated ability with consultant coordination; ability to manage project budgets and team workflow; strong organizational skills; curiosity and eagerness to learn.

Highly Desirable: MA architecture license or ARE exams completed; experience with high-performance multifamily housing and/or civic projects; LEED and/or PHIUS certification; commitment to AIA 2030.

Benefits: Competitive salary commensurate with experience. Health Insurance (HMO & PPO), Dental Insurance, and FSA requires no waiting period. Studio G offers 401K with company contribution upon eligibility, professional development and mentoring programs, generous paid time off, support for emerging professionals and a fun and engaging workplace that encourages a balanced work-life culture. To support collaboration, we are in the office 4 days per week.

Please send resume and portfolio samples less than 7 MB by email to resumes@studiogarchitects.com. Please do not send links to third party websites, which may not be reviewed.

Equal opportunity employer.
