

Design sustainable, innovative projects with Studio G Architects

A diverse, collaborative, and growing architecture studio, Boston-based Studio G seeks creative, enthusiastic architects and designers for socially and environmentally innovative design projects. Committed to social equity and inclusiveness, we design people-centered, place-specific, environmentally sensitive housing, schools, and civic projects.

We seek a creative, enthusiastic, and experienced Architect/Designer with 3-7 years' experience in design firms to work closely with the Principal-In-Charge and PM/PAs to assist in the design of K12 and civic projects, possibly multi-family housing.

Studio G prides itself on a diverse, multi-cultural, and LGBTQ-friendly workplace. We value individuals who offer design creativity, problem-solving and analytical thinking, and collaborative and interpersonal skills. We welcome enterprising staff, providing mentoring and opportunities for professional growth and advancement.

Minimum requirements: B.Arch or M.Arch diploma; experience with educational projects; proficiency in Revit; strong communication skills; demonstrated experience producing design, presentation, and construction drawings; demonstrated experience with consultant coordination; ability to take direction and collaborate with others; strong organizational skills; curiosity and eagerness to learn; experience with educational projects.

Highly Desirable: MA architecture license or ARE exams currently underway; experience with multifamily housing and/or other civic projects; construction administration experience; LEED and/or PHIUS certification; commitment to AIA 2030.

Benefits: Competitive salary commensurate with experience. Health Insurance (HMO & PPO), Dental Insurance, and FSA requires no waiting period. Studio G offers 401K with company contribution upon eligibility, professional development and mentoring programs, generous paid time off, support for emerging professionals and a fun and engaging workplace that encourages a balanced work-life culture. To support collaboration, we are in the office 4 days per week.
