

Design sustainable, innovative projects with Studio G Architects

A diverse, collaborative, and growing architecture studio, Boston-based Studio G seeks creative, enthusiastic architects and designers for socially and environmentally innovative design projects. Committed to social equity and inclusiveness, we design people-centered, place-specific, environmentally sensitive housing, schools and civic projects.

Studio G seeks a creative and enthusiastic Architect/PM with 6–10 years' relevant experience to work closely with the Principal-In-Charge, Senior Project Manager and project teams. Responsibilities include preliminary design through construction documentation and administration, as well as management of a design team. Experience in multi-family housing required, experience with K12 and civic projects also desired.

Studio G prides itself on a diverse, multi-cultural and LGBTQ-friendly workplace that values enterprising individuals who offer design creativity, problem-solving and analytical thinking, and collaborative and interpersonal skills. We welcome enterprising staff, providing mentoring and opportunities for professional growth and advancement.

Minimum requirements: B.Arch or M.Arch diploma; experience with multifamily housing; construction administration experience required; proficiency in Revit; excellent design, client communication, and project planning skills; demonstrated experience with programming, design, consultant coordination, and construction document production; ability to collaborate internally and externally; ability to lead a team and to take input and direction.

Highly Desirable: MA architecture license; experience with educational and Massachusetts public projects; sustainable design expertise and commitment to AIA 2030; ability to assist in managing project budgets and team workflow; LEED AP, PHIUS or other sustainable design certification.

Benefits: Competitive salary commensurate with experience. Health Insurance (HMO & PPO), Dental Insurance, and FSA with no waiting period. 401K with company contribution upon eligibility; professional development and mentoring programs; generous paid time off; support for emerging professionals; and a supportive, engaging workplace that encourages a balanced work-life culture. To support collaboration, we are in the office 4 days per week.
