

Seeking an Architect/Designer, min. 3 years' in architecture firms for sustainable, innovative projects

Highly Desirable: 5 years of experience in design firms; MA architecture license or ARE exams underway; experience with MA public design projects; experience with high performance buildings; commitment to AIA 2030; LEED and/or PHIUS certification; experience with Enscape, and Indesign; some experience with consultant coordination.

Minimum requirements: B.Arch or M.Arch; experience with multi-family housing and/or educational/civic projects; proficiency in Revit, Bluebeam, Adobe Suite; strong communication skills; demonstrated experience producing design, presentation, and construction drawings; self-starter with ability to take direction and collaborate with others; curiosity and eagerness to learn.

About Us. A collaborative and expanding architecture studio, Boston-based Studio G seeks enthusiastic individuals for socially and environmentally innovative design projects. Committed to social equity and inclusiveness, we design people-centered, place-specific, environmentally sensitive schools, civic projects and housing. Ours is a diverse, multi-cultural, and LGBTQ-friendly workplace. We value individuals who offer design creativity, problem-solving, and analytical thinking. We welcome enterprising staff, providing mentoring and opportunities for professional growth and advancement.

Benefits: Competitive salary commensurate with experience. Health Insurance (HMO & PPO), Dental Insurance, and FSA requires no waiting period. Studio G offers 401K with company contribution upon eligibility, professional development and mentoring programs, generous paid time off, support for emerging professionals and a fun and engaging workplace that encourages a flexible, balanced work-life culture.

Please send resume and portfolio samples less than 7 MB by email to resumes@studiogarchitects.com. Please do not send links to third party websites, which may not be reviewed.

Equal opportunity employer.

For info visit:

www.studiogarchitects.com

Click to learn more about our firm: Creating Places of Purpose - Join Our Team.pdf